

Relief Fund Cannot, According To Cable, Be Applied To Band

PHELAN SAYS SUFFERERS NEED IT

"Chamber of Commerce, Honolulu:
"Have written Morgan, Honolulu.
"Committee has planned use for all outstanding funds for benefit of sufferers by disaster.
"Will gratefully receive your balance. If you desire specific use of part, advise us.

"JAMES D. PHELAN."
The above cablegram was received this morning by L. Tenney Peck. It puts the kibosh on any scheme to use the balance of the relief fund for the purpose of bringing the band back.

"You see," said Peck, who is also a member of the Finance Committee which has the relief money in its hands, "this shows that the Finance Committee was correct in its view that it could not take part of the fund away for the purpose of assisting the band."

"As long as there is any suffering in San Francisco as a result of the disaster, to relieve which the fund is needed, the fund has to be spent for that purpose, and cannot be used for anything else. That puts an end to the plan to use any of the money for the relief of the band, and the relief fund will, as was decided at the recent meeting of the committee, be spent for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers."

"It is now up to the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association to devise other means to relieve the band boys. This can be done by raising a subscription, by making a loan to Cohen or possibly by other means."

Peck also received a cable answer from J. F. Morgan, as follows:
San Francisco, Nov. 12, 6:20 p. m.

L. T. Peck, Honolulu: Committee has cabled to the Chamber of Commerce. I am getting particulars of band situation.

JAS. F. MORGAN.

It is Peck's opinion that the two commercial bodies will not take any further active steps in the matter before definite information is ascertained about the actual condition of the band. This should be at hand soon, as Morgan is looking up the matter, and as Cohen is expected to answer Governor Carter's cable to him making inquiry on these same lines.

Honolulu, H. T., Nov. 12th, 1906.
Jas. F. Morgan, Esq., care Mainholm, Dibbern & Co., San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir:—I wired you today as follows: Ascertain band situation.
Do committee favor our using relief money to return band. I also sent the following dispatch to Jas. D. Phelan on Saturday last: "Does committee require further outside assistance in relieving distress? Answer fully."

The public feeling is strong for having the relief committee divert a portion of the money for the purpose of bringing back the stranded Hawaiian band. The Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association seem to endorse that position.

The relief committee, however, regards itself strictly as a trustee for the sufferers by the earthquake and fire in San Francisco. Every subscription paper which was issued by the committee bore a caption to that effect. However, it is very important that the financial and physical situation of the band be ascertained, and the relief committee of San Francisco should signify at least what their attitude would be should any of this relief money be diverted.

Personally, I am in favor of a new subscription and an immediate one to bring back the band. If it be found necessary, I am also in favor of having the War Department furnish transportation to the band on one of its transports. The band is an integral part of the First Regiment of the National Guard, which is subject to call to the national defense.

I have not been able to see Captain Heidt, the local Quartermaster, but will take the matter up with him immediately. It may be that the band is not in extreme "piffle"; it may be that it will earn good money when it returns to San Francisco, but I trust that you will have posted us fully on these matters before this letter reaches you.

Yours very truly,
L. T. PECK,
Treasurer, Committee of Chamber of Commerce.

BAND WAS BACKED

FOR $5000.

BY BUSINESS MEN

While the band boys are suffering from the stormy blast on the Western plains, these are not the only ones who have been left in the cold by the Cohen venture. There are in Honolulu ten men who each put up $500 to finance the project, and they will, judging from present indications, never see the color of their money again.

"Ten young business men in Honolulu put up $500 each, a total of $5000, which was to be used by Cohen in defraying expenses of the band in its tour of the States," said R. W. Shingle today, when asked about this phase of the matter. "These gentlemen requested me to be trustee for them of this fund, to which I consented."

"Some of this money placed in my hands was given to Cohen before he left Honolulu. The remainder has since been sent to him, so that no balance of the fund has been left in my hands. It was part of the understanding that Cohen should give an accounting of this money, but he has never done so. It must be understood that the liabilities of these men ceased when they put up the money. It is bad enough for them to have lost their money, and they cannot be expected to bring the band back."

While Shingle would not divulge the names of the ten who put up the $5000, they were learned from another source to be as follows:—Jas. F. Morgan, R.
W. Shingle, A. N. Campbell, Harry Armistage, W. Love, Clinton Hutchins, Geo. Bigelow, Wm. Brash, W. P. Roth and U. Lewis.

HAWAIIAN SOCIETIES ALREADY

HAVE $900 FOR BAND

The committees appointed by the Order of Kamehameha and the Kaahuanani Society to take charge of the method of getting up a fund to bring back the band met at the Kapolianni Estate offices this forenoon. No definite action was taken beyond that it was decided to bring all the Hawaiian organizations which are now working for this object together, so as to make a concerted effort for the common purpose.

"We are waiting to get some definite information, so that we may know just how much money is actually needed before we take any further steps," said Prince Kuhio this afternoon. "We do not want to go about with a subscription list which has no limit to it. We have already raised between $800 and $900 among the members of the societies alone."

ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Governor Carter has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation and is now off on a week's vacation at Hale-wa preparing for the day itself. The proclamation is rather shorter than the ones issued before this, but is concise, and those who have seen it consider that it is an unusually fine bit of literature of this class.
